In Ninth Round ending, Howard was always on the defensive, assimilating much punishment from his hard hitting rival. In the ninth round, Greb jumped out of his corner like a wild man and, foreing Howard about the ring, again landed his deadly left. Howard took a count of nine seconds and got up groggy. When he failed to put up any defence against his opponent the referee came to his aid. Greb Knocks Out Johnny Howard

First Choices Give Form Followers Hard Rap-Wise Man Disappointment

A slim attendance at Aqueduct yestorday saw very little racing that was worth seeing. About the only feature of the afternoon was the showing made by Regret, the great Broomstick-Jersey Lightning mare owned by Harry Payne Whitney. It was true that the mare had nothing to beat in Ima Frank, her only opponent, but it was the manner in which she did it that impressed. There were originally six named the opening number on the programme, but four owners decided they had no business paying starting money to send their horses to the post. And the result of the race proved that they were wise, for none of the horses scratched appeared to have a chance against the grand mare, even though she was giving away a lot of weight. The two-horse race was a joke as a contest, for Frankie Robinson just got

The two-horse race was a loke as contest, for Frankie Robinson just got Regret off on her toes, and she won as a she pleased. In fact, Robinson never had to let her down to gallop the seven furlongs in track-record time. The mare took only a fifth of a second off the mark of 1:242-5, set by Straight Forward last June, but she could have gone much faster had she been allowed to do so. In her present form she will be hard to beat in any company and at any distance.

Found followers got another hard rap, only two favorites, one of these being Regret, winning. Regret was at 1 to 10, and the other, George Smith, was only 15 to 20. Consequently, there was a lot of grumbling, for handicappers appear to be unable to get a line on the horses the way they low are running.

The most severe blow came when 140 running. most severe blow came when Wise Man, supposed, outside of Regret, to be the best thing of the afternoon, fell by the wayside. Wise Man was at odds on, and he looked to many to be in. The best he could do was third.

The jumping event, which was for maidens, over about the two-mile course, furnished one of the best races of the afternoon. Eleven went to the post, and it was a spectacular contest all the way, W. R. Coe's Town Hall getting up in the stretch to beat Pigeonthorpe and Lady Edwina. Cornell Football
